

GNITN Lesson 193

We Are So Blind

It Wasn't That Long Ago

It was a seemingly normal day when I woke up to go to work. I didn't have a cell phone with notifications so something that happened before I even put on my work clothes, something that haunts us to this day was not even on my radar. I was clueless, oblivious to actions swirling around newsrooms all over the country because I wasn't informed. But the second I turned on my television the images were being played over and over again about how two planes hit the twin towers in New York City and no one knew why. Then we heard about a plane that hit the Pentagon. And then we heard about a plane still in the air when all other planes were told to land. To this day, we are still debating whether it was only terrorists or an inside job, but no one questions that it happened and we all know that there signs leading up to that day, that if heeded, could have prevented the biggest terror attack on the United States in her history.

There Were Signs

Slowly the signs of a terrorist attack were revealed. Students attending flight school who only cared about flying a plane, but not taking off or landing it. Such students are of Middle Eastern descent and pay only in cash. One suspect trains at flight schools in Oklahoma and Minnesota. In July of 2001, an FBI agent in Phoenix, AZ sends a memo to the CIA with his concerns about men from the Middle East training at flight schools speculating they were with al Qaeda. The man who we later discovered was the leader of these plans is arrested in Minnesota on immigration issues but is not held even though international intelligence said he was affiliated with al Qaeda. A warrant to search his computer was denied by the Washington, DC office. A report on how to combat al Qaeda is sent to then President Bush on September 10th, but Bush is traveling and doesn't see it. There is more, but you get the point.

Israel Has Her 9/11

And now, we see how another terrorist attack occurred a little over three weeks ago in the Middle East that stunned Israel and shocked the world as the details began to come out. They too are wanting to know why one of the best, it not the best intelligence agency in the world didn't see it coming. Were there no signs? If there were, were they ignored and why were they ignored? Was there no one who asked questions? Was there no one who started to connect the dots and if there was, why did no one listen to him? If all this sounds vaguely familiar, it's because it is. We've seen this play out in America before and yet, it happened again. Now the shoe is on Israel's foot and the world is looking to see what went wrong. What signs were missed and why. But lest we just let it play out there from across the world, we have to ask ourselves if another terrorist plot is brewing in our country. As I said over and over again, the signs are there if we are open to asking questions and those who are in power are willing to listen and respond.

Fact Checkers Say No

When posed with statements made by President Trump on the campaign trail that we're letting into our country men who are Hamas, fact checkers were quick to point out that Trump has no evidence that this is happening and labeled it as outright lying. They of course found experts to refute this claim, some saying there is evidence that Hezbollah may be in Mexico, but not Hamas. How stupid do these people think we are? They have the same mindset those in higher schools of education had leading up to 9/11/2001 but are even blinder because access to better information is at their fingertips. For better or worse, the Internet does help connect dots for them, but they only want Orange Man and Republicans to look bad so they find ways to refute their message any way they can. Instead, we should be more resolute in our quest to see an attack coming and stop it. However, what can we do when the vast majority of social media is controlled by people who aren't intellectually honest enough to admit that our border is porous and criminals are getting in. The allure of winning elections and staying in power is enough to take the chance that there are sleeper cells forming right on our shores. But even if they aren't coming in illegally, the threat remains since the same lines of communications we use to educate ourselves can be used to radicalize people already here. Am I trying to just depress you? No, I'm sounding the alarm that another 9/11 could be just around the corner and we need to realize it.

Prophetic Words Are Out There

I try to keep up with what prophets are hearing and I know that many have heard about attacks from the north and the south. One man tells of how China wants to invade from Canada. When searches on the Internet are done on Chinese troops training in Canada you get both sides chiming in. But what do these fact checkers do with a prophetic word from God? I have a sneaking impression what they'll do, but the man in questions is Barry Wunsch who is nicknamed the "Canadian Hammer" actually saw what fact checkers say isn't happening. But Wunsch put out another word that leads perfectly into what I am talking about. It was on October 16th of this year and here is an excerpt from it:

"Barry tell my people things are being staged to roll out across the nations in this very hour.

Let it be known that there is nothing going on of which I am not aware!

There is a storm coming quickly across the land, and there is nothing that can stop it.

You will watch and see powers and principalities taken out around you by the power of my name - for I am the Lord of Hosts...There is no enemy that has power over me!

There are those evil ones, rulers and regimes that run from My name and my kingdom - truth righteousness and justice to follow the evil demonic plans of the enemy that brings death and leaves destruction in their wake. They will stop at nothing to fight against My Kingdom, and my dearest children brings destruction and oppression in every way.

Let me be clear, let me be straight- hear my word on this day: I will not be defeated, I will not back down. I will not back up. I will not relent. I will not enter a false peace treaty with the enemy. I will not tolerate this oppression and destruction upon on my people. I have come to destroy the works of the enemy and destroy it I shall!

The storm that is about to hit shall shake the Nations! Do not be shocked, do not be surprised when you see things flare in your midst! For the enemy has planned ahead and planted those among you to cause havoc and chaos from within your borders. For they are on the enemies payroll and are on standby in this hour.

Fast and pray with me as I shall expose each and every one involved on every level and bring justice to the Nations. The enemy shall be flushed out for all to see! There will be not one who is not impacted! It shall shake people out of darkness into my light! It shall shake down everything as you have known it! You will see the greatest awakening you have ever seen!

You shall see Nations saved in a day!

I Trust God

But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you. (Matt 6:33, NKJV)

As I usually do, I hold my judgment on words and let them play out. In this word by Wunsch there is no timetable for its fulfillment so we will wait, but I suggest that it is an active waiting as I believe that we have free will and we can and should pray into God doing these things. In this way we can reap more of the blessings and not be just bystanders in God's army. As the word says, fast and pray with Him as He has His way. And as we seek His kingdom first, all the things we need will be added to us. It's the way He always does things. We take care of what He wants and He meets all of our needs. In this case, He wants justice to prevail. Pray that He shows us specifically what He needs from us to bring that about and then pray that He will equip us and empower us to play our parts. Don't be concerned about the challenges involved. He is faithful and just and His protection and strength come with the calling. I'm not worried and neither should you. Pray that those who are blind will have their eyes opened just like Elisha's servant who finally saw God's army. And then blind the enemy so they can't see His judgment coming so they can't resist it. And like this word, I pray it happens, even in one day.
